The Gratiot Area Chamber of Commerce, incorporated in 1994, recognizes the economic viability of Gratiot County – a great place to live, work and do business. Gratiot County is a safe environment for raising a family or living the "golden years" of retirement.

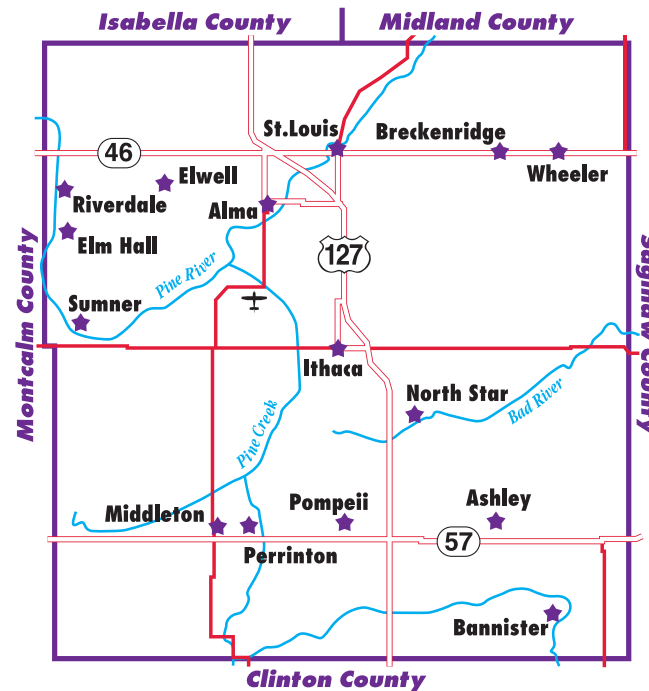

The Chamber currently has a membership of nearly 400 and serves as the unified voice of the business community. It consistently provides valuable programs, products and services designed to foster a progressive and thriving business community.

The success of the Gratiot Area Chamber of Commerce is attributed to its members, volunteers and partnerships with many organizations throughout the County.

We welcome you to explore Chamber membership opportunities.
